If you meet Illinois' CNA requirements, directions to register for the written competency exam will be e-mailed to you at the above address. Otherwise, you will be sent written notification stating that you do not meet the requirements. You will be allowed three opportunities to pass the written competency exam within 12 months after your application has been approved; failure to pass will require you to complete a CNA program before taking the written competency exam again. Upon successful completion of the competency exam, you will be placed on the Health Care Worker Registry, which is the state's registry for CNAs. You may view the registry at http://www.idph.state.il.us/nar/home.htm. Illinois does not issue any credentials or certificates to CNAs.

Incomplete applications will be returned to the address provided.
